ballad plastic outdoor chair

product information

The Ballad Plastic Outdoor Chair collection brings the harmony of its indoor origins into the open air. The chairs are available in both arm and armless versions, with a choice of four-leg or sled bases. With seats made from durable plastic, Ballad strikes the perfect balance between form and function. The collection features UV-protected, outdoor-certified paints and finishes, crafted to withstand the elements. With eight frame finishes and three seat color options, the collection offers a rich palette of possibilities for expressive, resilient design.
